

Order of Worship: June 14, 2026

10:00 am – In-person worship

Pastor: Jim Brown

Worship theme: Have you ever been involved in building or demolishing a house or other structure? What did you learn from the experience? Not all houses are built the same way or with the same dedication to quality and soundness. At the end of the Sermon on the Mount, after all the things Jesus has taught the people, He compares how people respond to His teachings by talking about building a house. Even if we're not into constructing things, we are all builders in our lives.

Today is also Father's Day and we remember those who have been family fathers and spiritual fathers in our lives.

Prelude

Welcome & Call to worship

Scripture: Psalms 1 (NIV) Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers, but whose delight is in the law of the LORD, and who meditates on his law day and night.

That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither— whatever they do prospers. Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous. For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.

Opening prayer

Opening Hymn: #606 HWB - Oh, have you not heard

Affirmation of Faith

Prayer of Confession/Affirmation

Scripture: James 1:19-25 (NIV) My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.

Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

Hymn: #490 HWB - Lord of the home

Scripture: Matthew 7:24-27 (NIV) Diane H - "Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock.

But everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash."

*Father's Day - no Congregation discussion/Coffee time

1. Most of all let love guide you by Roy Salmond

Most of all let love be true
No need to play those games
So make love your greatest aim
Most of all let love guide you

2. Be aware of what's inside

Be aware of what you hide
Be honest to the One
Who loves you as you are
Be aware of what's inside

3. Keep your eyes upon the Lord

Don't be overcome by the world
Remember God is there
And He loves and He cares
Keep your eyes upon the Lord
